The Senior Class of 1980
would like to co-dedicate Triumph '80 to two fine
people —

— To Mrs. Snyder for her longstanding
friendship, loyalty,
and counseling to the student body at Tamarac.

DEDICATION

— To Mr. Corr for his three years of hard work and determination as class advisor making our years at Tamarac High School a success.

Again we would like to thank these two respected and admired
people.

*Memories light the corners of my mind,
misty water-colored
memories of the way
we were.*

Scattered pictures, of the smiles we left behind,

Smiles we gave to one another, for the way we were.

Can it be that it was all so simple then,

*or has time rewritten
every line?*

If we had the chance to do it all again,

*Tell me, would we,
could we?*

Memories may be beautiful and yet,

What's too painful to remember, we simply choose to forget.

So it's the laughter, we will remember,

*Whenever we remember, the way
we were.*

Mr. Corr

Four years ago the class of '80 entered the doors of a place called Tamarac. As freshmen, we entered a bit nervously but ready to meet the challenges of high school. Mr. Hamer, one of the three principals we would encounter, introduced us to the school. Just when we thought we were getting used to the routine, school was closed for two days while schedules were being straightened out. The problem quickly passed and we set out to raise money for our class. With the help of our advisor, Ms. Isaacs, we sold candy bars. Although we ate more than we sold, we still turned a profit.

In the spring of the year the musical OKLAHOMA was presented by the chorus and we all had a lot of fun. At the end of the year we sponsored two movies, then looked ahead to the coming fall.

Our sophomore year started off great, especially since we weren't freshmen anymore. We were starting school off with a bang and also with a new principal, Mr. Murray. We still haven't figured out what it is that drives principals away from Tamarac, but since we are the only class to have had three different principals we have a sneaking suspicion it might be us. Nevertheless our sophomore year also gave us a new advisor, Mr. Corr. Mr. Corr worked hard to help us organize dances and other activities that we held throughout the year. We especially enjoyed the success of our football and baseball teams who both won championships. Some of us went on an exciting trip to Cape Cod sponsored by the Biology Club to finish out the year.

The excitement and fun of our junior year began early. First we held our ring dinner at the Country Den, and then sponsored a very successful dance afterwards. Then came time for the annual Junior Magazine Sale. We had a great rivalry going with the senior class to see if we could raise as much money as they had the previous year. Needless to say we did.

There were special classroom memories. Who can forget the agonized look on someone's face as they dropped a beaker in Mrs. Pratt's Chemistry class, or Mr. Pascucci rambling on about American History despite the fact that most of the class was asleep

In the spring the prom "Always and Forever" was held at Germania Hall. As the year was drawing to a close, Mr. Murray left and took our senior privileges with him. The year ended and we all headed for Lloyd's Studio for our senior pictures

Finally we are seniors. Triumph '80 was organized and everyone set out to raise money in an advertising campaign. Again we started off with a new principal, Mr. Goodale. We also got back the senior privileges we had lost

During the first part of the year we held dances and other activities. We all helped to raise money for the sports program. There were a lot of fun times like the Pops Concert put on by the chorus, and we especially enjoyed the underoos commercial put on by a group of senior guys

We also started a tradition by selling carnations right before Christmas vacation. We'll always remember sneaking off to MacDonalds and trying to avoid teachers on hall duty. Once again this year we continued the tradition of selling carnations on Valentine's Day. There's still a lot more to do before that golden day in June. There's class night, baccalaureate, and the senior trip, and finally graduation

It's all gone by so fast but we've grown and matured in many ways. We've learned responsibility and confidence. All we can say is remember us Tamarac as we have remembered you

Placid cold, but no snow

LAKE PLACID, AP — Snow flurries and cold temperatures prevailed in the Olympic region Saturday morning but the National Weather Service predicted no major accumulation of snow.

Snow coming?

DESPITE long range predictions by Washington specialists that snow will be falling our way in there is no snow in the Capital District's weather the next five days, and anything beyond that is "gutter" according to Kenneth Lapenta of the Weather Service at the Albany County Airport.

So far this has been the area's fourth least second driest winter recorded for at least a cen Lapenta. Roughly 6.4 inches of snow is recorded season to date, compared to a normal average of
for the Capital District.

How often we wish for another chance to make a fresh beginning,
A chance to blot out our mistakes and change failure into winning —
And it does not take a special time to make a brand new start,
It only takes the deep desire to try with all our heart
To live a little better and to always be forgiving
And to add a little "sunshine" to the world in which we're living — So never give up in despair and think that you are through,
For there's always a tomorrow and a chance to start anew.

Marge and Donna

And finally we'd like to thank Mr. Backhaus, our advisor, who made Triumph '80 possible.

Mr. Backhaus

Postlude

So it's the laughter,

*We will remember,
whenever we
remember,*

The way we were.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions, including sales, purchases, and expenses. It emphasizes the need for a systematic approach to record-keeping, such as using a ledger or accounting software, to ensure that all financial data is properly documented and organized. This section also covers the importance of regular reconciliation and auditing to identify any discrepancies or errors in the records.

The second part of the paper focuses on the importance of maintaining accurate records of all assets and liabilities. It discusses the need for a comprehensive inventory of all assets, including real estate, vehicles, and personal property, and the importance of regularly updating this inventory to reflect changes in ownership or value. It also covers the importance of maintaining accurate records of all liabilities, including loans, mortgages, and other debts, and the need to regularly review and manage these obligations.

The third part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all income and expenses. It emphasizes the need for a detailed record of all income sources, including salaries, bonuses, and investment income, and the importance of regularly reviewing and reconciling these records. It also covers the importance of maintaining accurate records of all expenses, including personal and business expenses, and the need to regularly review and categorize these expenses for tax purposes.

The fourth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all tax-related information. It covers the need for a detailed record of all tax payments, including income taxes, property taxes, and sales taxes, and the importance of regularly reviewing and reconciling these records. It also covers the importance of maintaining accurate records of all tax-related documents, including tax returns, receipts, and other supporting documentation, and the need to regularly organize and store these documents in a secure and accessible manner.

The fifth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all financial goals and objectives. It emphasizes the need for a clear and concise statement of all financial goals, including retirement savings, education expenses, and other long-term objectives, and the importance of regularly reviewing and updating these goals to reflect changes in circumstances or priorities. It also covers the importance of maintaining accurate records of all progress towards these goals, including savings rates, investment performance, and other relevant metrics, and the need to regularly track and report on this progress.
